Who is AAPM?

The mission of AAPM is advancing medicine through excellence in the science, education and professional practice of medical physics; a broad-based scientific and professional discipline which encompasses physical principles with applications in biology and medicine. With members in 87 countries, AAPM supports the Medical Physics community with a focus on advancing patient care through education, improving safety and efficacy of radiation oncology and medical imaging procedures through research, and the maintenance of professional standards.

What is the AAPM Spring Clinical Meeting?

The Spring Clinical Meeting is where medical physicists gather to gain practical insights on integrating emerging technologies into clinical settings. This event is your chance to engage with professionals seeking to stay updated on regulatory and accreditation issues, and participate in valuable exchanges aimed at practice quality improvement. This is an unparalleled opportunity to showcase your solutions and drive business growth.

MESSAGE FROM THE AAPM PRESIDENT

On behalf of the American Association of Physicists in Medicine (AAPM), thank you for your continued dedication to our mission and your unwavering support of our meetings. Your partnership is instrumental as we look ahead to the 2026 Spring Clinical Meeting, set to take place at the Hyatt Regency Orlando.

This meeting is where clinical medical physicists come together to connect, learn, and grow. It's a hands-on, forward-thinking event designed to bridge the gap between knowledge and real-world practice. With approximately 400 passionate professionals expected to attend, the 3½-day program is packed with practical takeaways, tackling big topics like regulatory updates, accreditation hurdles, and ways to boost quality in everyday practice. It's also a space to delve into how new technologies are actually being used in clinics to make a real difference for patients.

Our 2026 theme — Medical Physics Community: Inspiration. Innovation. Impact. — captures the spirit of where we're headed. It reflects our commitment to pushing the field forward through collaboration, creativity, and meaningful change. At AAPM, we're all about building a stronger community, supporting each other through mentorship, and making connections that empower both individual physicists and the profession as a whole. These values shape every part of the meeting and are key to advancing the future of clinical medical physics.

Beyond the outstanding meeting content, the vibrant city of Orlando sets the stage for connection, creativity, and a well-earned dose of fun. With world-class dining, unforgettable entertainment, and sunshine to spare, this dynamic setting promises a gathering that's not just professionally enriching but personally memorable.

Thank you for being an essential part of this event and of our broader mission. We look forward to partnering with you to make the 2026 Spring Clinical Meeting a resounding success.
